

Privacy Policy

At LEGATRIXON, we value your privacy and are committed to protecting the information you share with us. This Privacy Policy explains how information is collected, used, stored, and protected when you access or use the LEGATRIXON platform, website, applications, and related services. By accessing or using the Platform, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with the terms of this Policy, you should refrain from using the Platform.

1. About this Policy

This Privacy Policy applies whenever you access, browse, register for, subscribe to, or otherwise use LEGATRIXON. We collect and process information only for legitimate business purposes related to providing, maintaining, improving, and securing our services. We do not sell personal information to third parties and make reasonable efforts to ensure that information entrusted to us is handled responsibly and in accordance with applicable laws.

2. Information We Collect

LEGATRIXON may collect information that users voluntarily provide while creating an account, contacting us, subscribing to services, making payments, or using various features of the Platform. Such information may include a user's name, email address, phone number, organization details, billing information, and any documents, queries, prompts, feedback, or other content submitted through the Platform.

In addition, certain technical information may be collected automatically when users interact with the Platform. This may include IP address, browser type, operating system, device information, access dates and times, usage data, cookies, location information, and other analytics data that help us understand how the Platform is being used and how services can be improved.

3. How We Use Your Information

The information collected by LEGATRIXON is used to provide and improve services, create and manage user accounts, process subscriptions and payments, respond to inquiries, provide customer support, enhance security, prevent fraud, and communicate important updates regarding the Platform. Information may also be used to analyze usage patterns, improve platform functionality, conduct research, and ensure compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

Where users choose not to provide certain information necessary for the operation of the Platform, LEGATRIXON may be unable to provide specific services or features requested by the user.

4. AI Processing and User Content

LEGATRIXON utilizes artificial intelligence technologies to provide legal research, drafting, compliance, document review, and related services. Information, documents, prompts, and queries submitted by users may be processed by our systems for the purpose of generating requested outputs and improving the functionality of the Platform. Users remain responsible for the content they upload and should ensure that they possess all necessary rights and permissions relating to such content. Users are encouraged to independently review and verify any AI-generated outputs before relying upon them.

5. Information Sharing

LEGATRIXON does not sell personal information to third parties. However, information may be shared with trusted service providers, vendors, payment processors, cloud service providers, and technology partners where such sharing is necessary to operate, maintain, secure, or improve the Platform. Such parties are required to maintain the confidentiality of information and use it only for authorized purposes.

Information may also be disclosed where required by law, court order, government authority, regulatory body, or where such disclosure is necessary to investigate fraud, cybersecurity incidents, illegal activities, violations of our Terms and Conditions, or to protect the rights, safety, and security of LEGATRIXON, its users, or the public.

6. Security of Information

LEGATRIXON implements reasonable technical, administrative, and organizational safeguards to protect information from unauthorized access, disclosure, misuse, alteration, or destruction. While we strive to maintain high standards of security, no electronic transmission or storage system can be guaranteed to be completely secure. Users acknowledge that the transmission of information over the internet carries inherent risks, and LEGATRIXON cannot guarantee absolute protection against hacking, cyberattacks, data breaches, or other unauthorized activities.

7. Third-Party Websites

The Platform do not contain links to third-party websites, legal databases, government portals, or external resources that are not operated or controlled by LEGATRIXON.

8. Data Retention

LEGATRIXON retains information only for as long as necessary to provide services, fulfill legal and regulatory obligations, resolve disputes, enforce agreements, maintain business records, and protect the security and integrity of the Platform. Information that is no longer required may be deleted, anonymized, or securely archived.

9. Changes to this Policy

LEGATRIXON reserves the right to modify, update, or replace this Privacy Policy at any time to reflect changes in law, technology, business operations, or Platform functionality. Any changes shall become effective immediately upon publication on the Platform unless otherwise stated. Users are encouraged to periodically review this Policy to remain informed about how their information is collected and used.

10. Contact

For any questions, concerns, complaints, suggestions, or requests relating to this Privacy Policy or the handling of your information, users may contact LEGATRIXON through the contact details provided on the Platform.

By accessing or using LEGATRIXON, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to this Privacy Policy in its entirety.
